From the President's Desk:

As announced in previous issues of Club Chatter, NLBC will have a booth and demonstration area at the Wellness Expo being held at the Vancouver Island Convention Centre on Saturday, February 10. A full list of exhibitors and a brochure describing the event is on the Wellness News website <https://wellnessnews.ca/womenexpo/>

A call went out for volunteers to assist in the information booth and to demonstrate the sport of lawn of lawn bowling in the activity area. More volunteers are needed. Please respond to burbanika@shaw.ca if you are able to contribute 2 or 3 hours of your time on Saturday, February 10 between the hours of 9:00 am and 6:00 pm.

Short Mat Update:

The short mat group had a fun day out on Sunday, January 21 at Qualicum Beach. Twenty two people participated and the winning team was Keith McMann (skip), Mary Bradford (third), Adrie Muller (second), and Richard Brind (lead). We took the opportunity to wish Richard and Christine all the very best for their move back to Wales. The event was followed up with lunch at Gary's Bistro. The next event will be on Sunday, March 25. Contact Shirley Phillips at shirley.phillips@shaw.ca to reserve a place.
