Hello everyone,

As we inch closer to our club's Opening Day, I look forward in planning some fun events this year in celebration of the club's 95th anniversary.

Ladies, as you're doing your spring cleaning, going through your closets and bringing items to your favourite thrift shop for recycling, check out the clothing rack for anything resembling the 1920's. That's right. We are planning on having a 1920's theme throughout the season.

The biggest event being on National Bowls Day on Saturday, June 2nd, where we will ask our members and public alike to join us in celebrating Nanaimo Lawn Bowling Club's 95th Anniversary. There will be prizes awarded for best 1920's outfit (men & women's), 1920's music, a BBQ and fun on the green.

So, we are giving you plenty of time to assemble your outfits before June. No need to be precise on the fashion details, just have fun with it.

Don't throw those outfits away....you just may need them again in September for the Gender Skirmish tournament. More details to follow.

Let's have some fun!
